

God of Peace, be with us as we re-commit ourselves to the nonviolence of Jesus.

Gift us with the courage to be honest with ourselves about the violence in our language, our attitudes and our behaviors.

Gift us with insight into the systems that impact and impede our ways of living the Gospel.

Gift us with boldness in our actions to create a culture of active nonviolence for so that all of our sisters and brothers may thrive and live with integrity and justice. AMEN