

Catholics say: Stop the Inhumanity

Figure 1. Overcrowding of families observed by OIG on June 10, 2019, at Border Patrol's McAllen, TX, Station. Source: OIG

Images of immigrant and refugee children detained in cages, separated from family members, and living in unsanitary, unhealthy conditions have outraged the nation in recent days. The faith community has decried this treatment of children not only as a violation of human dignity and rights, but also as contrary to religious teachings and the sacred call to care for people who are most at risk, especially children.

Join multiple Catholic organizations and representatives in a campaign calling for an end to the inhumane treatment of immigrant and refugee children and families by the U.S. government.

When: 10am on July 18, 2019

Where: Capitol Lawn (across from Russell Senate Office Building)

What: Join us for prayer, a call to action by Catholic leaders, and nonviolent civil disobedience, for those who choose.

RSVP here: <https://cutt.ly/jYJbDj>

“Migrants are persons... They are the symbol of all those rejected by today’s globalized society... The weakest and most vulnerable must be helped... This is a tremendous responsibility, from which no one is exempt if we wish to fulfill the mission of salvation and liberation, in which the Lord himself has called us to cooperate.” - Pope Francis, July 8, 2019