Unseen Companion of our life,
Give us faith and eager expectancy
as we continue to face uncertainty.
Help us hold our fear of the unknown
in the assurance that You are with us.
Teach us to wrest treasures from anxiety.
Encourage us to approach each day
with faith, wisdom and compassion.
We pray for those who suffer and all who care for them.
Inspire us to honor the human dignity of each person and may our presence be a source of healing and encouragement.
We ask all of this confident in your Spirit. Amen
